

Ms Rain has since lived and worked abroad in Estonia, Spain and Sweden whilst reinventing her image voice and sound. She has most recently co-written and featured with Rasmus Faber on his new single release "What Do You Do" and also album collaboration Two Left Feet; appeared vocally and with writing credits on Estonian artists Jüri Pootsmann for his album titled 'Tana' and also The Alvistar Funk Association Album "Vikerviisid" and co-wrote and vocalled on Estonian singer Kea's single titled 'New Start'.

Originally born in South London; performing at many prestigious events in many countries around Europe, events, restaurants clubs, bands, festivals, concerts, client events, TV music contests and radio.

Renaë lived in Spain for a year during that time spent half a year touring Ibiza as one third of the group member for 'The Supremes Sisters of Funk n' Soul' tribute band; which was a number one hit request and very popular on the island of summer 2003.

After leaving Spain Ms Rain returned to London taking a break from music and returned to complete her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education Studies.

In 2015 Renaë decided to explore opportunities in Estonia when she was offered the chance to perform with a live band, she enjoyed it so much that she decided to move there and within three years established herself across the Baltics as a known performing artist in Estonia, composing, writing music for artist and producers in the industry whilst also appearing on Estonian and Russian TV for her live concert appearances, small featured acting roles and commercials.

She has been support vocalist over in Estonia for known artist such as; Zebra Island, Ian Karell with Close to Infinity, James Werts and Estonian pop star Uku Suviste (2017/2019 Eesti Laul/ Eurovision competition) and breakfast morning show.

Renaë Rain has since returned to the UK and is currently working on her own music projects with the likes of Fred AGAIN (Stormzy ,Headie One, Ed Sheeran) and Kamille (Little Mix, Clean bandit, Mabel, Stormzy) and has just started her producer and engineering journey as @thegoddessmusic. Her ethos is to influence and to be a positive role model within the music industry. Inspiring other females and to show them that is possible to succeed and be seen in such role.

Her first collaboration release under TheGoddessMusic as a producer came out on 23rd April 2021 with RnB artist Benny Bizzie (Ghetts, Wretch 32 and Z Dot (Stormzy, Wiley) titled 'TreadingWater'. She has since released two further singles under TheGoddessMusic titled Too Close featuring Jenny Adesanya and Here Tonight featuring Jerome Sebag both released August 16th 2021.